EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. In the previous Notice of Allowability, there was an inadvertent inclusion of claim 34 in the allowed claims. However, Claim 34 has been cancelled. This Office Action is to correct the issue. Additionally, this Office Action is to provide amendments to update the dependencies for claims 29 and 31.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Anthony Azure (Reg. No. 52,580) on 07/25/2007.

The application has been amended as follows:

Amendments to the Claims:

- (a) All previous copies of claims 1, 29, 31, and 33 have been replaced with the following clean copy of claims 1, 29, 31, and 33 as amended by the Examiner's amendment.

1. In a computer network, a method comprising, receiving a request from a requester at a my-services service for location information of a user identity-based service, wherein the my-services service describes available services for a given user identity of a user of the computer network, the my-services service having a my-services schema that maintains data about other services in one or more service-related fields;

providing location information to the requester regarding the requested user identity-based service, wherein the requested user identity-based service to organize data associated with the user based on an identity of the user, the user identity-based service including a user identity-based service schema having service-related fields arranged into a content document with defined structures for the fields, wherein the user identity-based service to receive data used by the user identity-based service from another user identity-based service in accordance with a push model, wherein the push model includes receiving an update to the data from the another user identity-based service after the data changes at the another user identity-based service, wherein the push model uses a Service-to-Service Communication Protocol (SSCP) between user identity-based services, wherein a user identity-based service may be a publisher and/or a subscriber in the SSCP, wherein the SSCP includes:

a publisher-to-subscriber communication to send changes to a publisher's data to one or more subscribers of the publisher's data;

a subscriber-to-publisher communication to update one or more subscribers to the publisher's data;

a service status communication used by a publisher to inform one or more subscribers to the publisher that the publisher is going offline or has come online, and used by a subscriber to inform one or more publishers to the subscriber that the subscriber is going offline or has come online;

receiving a data access request directed to service information at the user identity-based service from the requester, the request including associated user identity information;

in response to the data access request, manipulating at least one set of data in a logical service document that includes data therein according to the associated identity information, each set of data in the logical service document structured to correspond to a field in the content document; and returning the logical service document to the requester in response to the data access request.

29. The method of claim 1 wherein the data is received by the user identity-based service in accordance with a pull model, wherein the pull model includes receiving the data from the another user identity-based service in response to a query from the user identity-based service.

31. The method of claim 1 wherein the push model uses a Service-to-Service Communication Protocol (SSCP), wherein the SSCP provides communication between user identity-based services in different realms.

33. A computer readable storage medium including computer readable instructions that when executed by a computer perform the method of claim 1.

b. Claims 19, 28, 30, 32, and 34 have been cancelled.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the Issue Fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the Issue Fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
